Do you do as your told to build trust that's not the best avenue. Be led by your fears? Wrong direction also. Listen only to yourself, too much pressure within, listen to all -too many voices. What you hear should be yourself not others opinions of you like yourself enough not to read into others too much of you you should not be influenced easily by others repeat mistakes to be like that only hurts you moving forward not a good pathway to change to give in to hate toward you. #mymollydollblog #nevergivein #listenoften but not as directed if it makes you uncomfortable then do as you feel is right not give in to bad feelings how bad happens.

Okay so poor timing for the I'm not gay #Tinder movement. If I barf that means not ready. That was a poor choice I'm sorry. #PresidentTrump that broke his heart ahead of time and as a result did not trust me hurt him. When you back out means #troubleahead. You stop trouble by being ahead.

By the time someone comes up don't punish them for something a long time ago accept them as they are new, improved better. When you keep punishing a #good it hurts others makes not well onlookers to see inflicted pain and hardship on someone good who's eyes everyone's eyes a few eyes that don't like a person are not a majority but a minority of haters should not equate hate. #mymollydollblog How can you take someone's personal issues personally if I don't even know you. #strangers Dear

If you focus on you where others are focused on you if others focus on you when you're focused you become de-focused focused on what's being focused on you or others - always focus on you otherwise you hear voices. That's how you unfocus attentions. #mymollydollblog (needs work*) #beyourself

You can write as you go in life but you can never predict the future by causing harm to those not deserving of hardship that does not stop pain from occurring present or not #staywell #nevergiveup #representyourselfwell mymollydoll.com

If you don't respect those who are well don't disrespect them when not well that's not the solution to cause pain to prove pain that's being a pain on purpose inflicting pain to justify causing pain to those you seem not deserving of respect that's unnecessary pain a grose overstep of boundaries to cause harm to someone harmless results in fighting unnecessary hardships on top of hardships causes a hard life difficulty functioning and achieving that's called disability an inflicted wound caused by someone well who thinks well is invincible or more able than they thought that causes disability when you mistreat someone inhumanely that's caused hardship not worthy of attention because it causes more pain to see overexpose pain causing agents to those in pain ie me #mymollydollblog that's overpowering a well person to cause disability to lift up what? That's called unjustified harm to someone innocent who is not of threat or harm to others only to themselves is a non-risk. Miscalculated risks cause hardships.

What does mentorship mean to me? It was suggested by Torah Botranger to write for 12 minutes everyday on her Instagram blog. It's 11:45am now on 12-23-17. Great idea.

What does it mean to create an idea and from what basis do ideas come from. –Livelihood? Unbringing? These are questions I ask myself. –What are we drawn to? And by what categories of likeness are we judged by? Always see the big picture is the lesson I've learned. When too focused on what others think I become ill. When focused on my own thoughts I feel well. –I've learned to always appreciate where I come from, poems from Mr. Wendell and all. So lucky to be from Brentwood. It's now 11:51am.

Chapter 77: Journal Notes (Handwritten) by Leslie A. Fischman

Being put together. Some people put things together to hurt you, if you allow them to and sometimes people put things together in a way that helps. –You cannot control the interpretations of others. Whether for or against you. It does not make sense why anyone would read along and not support me. But take benefit. –That does not make sense to me –why anyone would acquire information from a person they do not like. For what reasons are people negative toward others? For what reasons do people bring up the past (not true) to serve and benefit themselves, their viewpoints. For what causes do they seek to trigger to benefit themselves? There is always cause for worry once aggravated. Occurs when one side is not doing well and to better themselves bring down another side. This is called competition for happiness. When one cannot be happy for others or another's happiness irritates them.

That doesn't make sense to me. Everyone deserves to live a normal life and do the best they can to achieve a normal life. There is never any excuse for anger or hostility toward others. Is never justified if not purposefully provoked. –Some problems exist within themselves. In it of themselves –in existence – meaning not existing because of others. –Problems, ideas, or thoughts. Are most likely generated from their own concerns. Assume from a good place to not contribute to those ills. –I was thinking about this today –There are conversations, then you leave conversations. How to control yourself during unwanted conversations and what to do in the event of aggravation. Usually its best to walk away, leave the conversation and not engage others in conversation –avoid fights. –How you function afterwards –is in your control.

No one can control you your thoughts behaviors or how you function in life. It is never your responsibility to correct those who have harmed you. People who are exposed to abuse, used to those types of relationships will repeat those patterns toward you –hurt you again. Always be understanding. Especially when it comes to family and friends. Listen not tell people how you feel, but try to make new conversation, not relate what's going wrong with individuals not concerned with personal issues. Platforms are not for attention but for communication with others. How people identify themselves is their own responsibility, not the responsibility of everyone ever to help one person. A person should fix themselves to match their settings and blend in. Not stand out to be fixed. That's trying – recipe for seeking unwanted attention to if talked about can place blame on others –try to make someone like you or have similar issues to be addressed or fixed. Best to get professional advice, not wear others out with negativity. Once you change it will seem like everything changes around you.

Be thankful for every passing day you live. Life is not short but it does not need to be painful or lived in regret – if you make the right choices no one can hurt you. –Only yourself by your perceptions. – Your cares and by your outlook in life and by the judgments you pass on others. Look to your future for peace. All that your left with then is your present. –Your present circumstances always figure out/predict your future. What may seem trivial in retrospect is never easy to bear when presently undergone. Everything you’ve been through in life matters. –Welcome your thoughts with a critical and smart heart that cares for yourself help yourself achieve your present –noticed achievements will always help others in a way that’s not hurtful but helpful. Never manipulate emotions recognize them and always set them aside first.

What you willingly respond and react to will determine your ability and your ability reflects your present outlook without having to explain yourself to others. What makes sense to you may not make sense to all. –You have to find your own drives in life –Whether or not always maintain stability a sense of normalcy to achieve inner peace –we discussed this.

When you change what matters to you will help you overcome what bothers you. Change occurs daily never at once and always in parts. “Whole is the sum of its parts” #famousquote. Never cease to exist –your mind matters but your life and livelihood accepted is more important.

You should never become too dependent on any one thing or person for love. That is up to you how you play your cards in life and where you end up in life is up to you. Don’t fret the small stuff in life. Always focus on the big picture. If you’re not where you need to be in life and not happy then think about what will make you happy in life. Never get too caught up in the delusion of unhappiness. Don’t lock yourself into unhappy or unwanted thoughts. Think about what it is that will make you happy. Is what you’re doing right now going to help you achieve happiness in life why or why not. Don’t let anyone bring you down in life. –We all get sick sometimes its all a matter of getting well and staying well.

You have to be careful –what you consume affects you. What is becoming of you is when you represent yourselves and others well. Always be in control of your emotions. What you send out (energy) gets sent back to you. Especially on social media. –Where we are easily affected by others and easily misread. Who you are and who you are associated to matters. You build those associations to you by the likes you choose. –How people see what matters to you –and what youre affected by. Always see the big picture. –Nothings a big deal if you don’t make it out to be a big deal. Think in terms of consequences. –How does your audience feel. That’s a good indicator of how you should project yourself online to others –help make normal others. When you are normal everything around you will feel normal too.

Im not feeling well today. Im not sure whats wrong it must be stress ... on my heart making me feel bad about myself. Im having difficulty feeling good in life and finding joy and satisfaction again in life. I just want to feel well and do well. Maybe I need to study for my life and health exam. [At the time I got a job as a life insurance agent, and did not stay, too difficult to learn new material right now, that's why]. I think that will make me feel better about myself not communications. I think too many communications subjects me to harm and hardship in life. Im trying to just maintain a steady head on my shoulders at this point not worry too much about what others think of me and just stay positive. Im not sure whats wrong with me. I should not need to convince everyone of my mental illness or whats wrong with me. I just wanted to do well in life and now Im not doing well. I don't think that my life should be ruined. I should still have an opportunity to achieve in life and do well with or without others. [ie. Be independent of others, regain my sense of self-confidence].

01-28-18

You have to be careful what you write online not all of it is in your best interests to share out loud – some of it when put together can make you look delusional and paranoid when written said out loud and explained. If its just something bothering you it need not be something that has to bother everyone. That is a misnomer that something that bothers you a little now is so important to discuss because it will bother you more at some future point in time. You just have to let things go and not be bothered by others or happenings, whether or not to do with you or others. That's just a manifestation of your paranoia nothing to do with the judgments passed by others.

01-06-18

When you're bad, people will try to situate blame upon you to get you to say and behave in a way that illustrates what puts you in those shoes in life and what is considered your downfall. Always listen to others and not try too hard or be defiant as that looks like ego over compensation for retardation or disability/addiction. You cannot change what others think of you or be put together. Sometimes you have to learn when to quit or change pace or stop before its too late, you only have one life to live, don't ruin it chasing dreams, or you will not feel good about yourself if you do things to feel good or to make others feel good just work hard, be your best self.

02-07-18

Just because I don't write doesn't mean I have no thoughts. Im just resting need to conserve my energy due to burn out. What is wanted –is what is communicated. You have to be strong.

02-07-18

When people get upset with you they expect something from you provoked behavior to cause a consequence or a fact to occur to connect. That's mean and elaborate to connect bad to good. You cannot go backwards in life image wise once youre done youre done. Its hard to repair yourself. Its never too late to get healthy be well.

02-07-18

You cannot be a machine in life you have to keep going but not put yourself at risk of harm. That's not just about image but about your health and your heart. In order to stay strong you have to be good.

02-07-18

I feel like literal interpretations can cause illness. Its not for one to judge the other based upon choices in life.

02-07-18

Its never too late to change and speak well of yourself otherwise they test for negative patterns hurt you. Always listen to your Doctor trust them.

02-07-18

No Im not always on my phone. Im a writer. I wrote my book on my phone.

02-08-18

I don't think that setups are necessary to hurt others esteem to prove guilt or not be watched constantly that's an abuse of power an unwanted touching of my mind. Im not an experiment. I cannot listen to songs of victims. That's too polluted harmful to the purpose of being positive not thinking negatively about self and/or others. I'm sorry I said to my Dad if he goes I'll go with him, that wasn't nice of me to say that, I should be positive. I never complain or blame others for my problems.

02-08-18

You cant win them all life is not a game to be broken or one sided or not. No harm to others is ever valuable to society.

02-08-18

Im having difficulty being. My sense of being is physically disturbed. Why Im on heavy meds. I don't have identity issues. Im not a violent person toward self or others. Im not feeling well feeling ill need to get my rest and sleep now get my energy back no worry others. Not share pains or delusions just be normal.

02-08-18

I don't think I handled the stress and trauma from recent events well. And went on a Tinder date. Then back to Jay, he called, 10 days later, now I feel grose. This was not a good two months for me. Plus someone left trash on the trash can. Snacks.

The fine was really traumatizing –pause long – nothing to say. Zoned out. I think that its very difficult to help others when you yourself are not doing well strong. Life can be traumatizing. I just need to focus on sleep and rest, recuperate. Think. Im starting IOP again. Was planning to, but not going to go, I don't have time to sit and talk. Maybe that will help with my thought disorders. Keep me centered. Focused on me.

What happens when others try to be you in life not themselves problems occur. –You can always help others but you cannot always be perfect in life. It takes time to get to better in life. –Life's not all about mystery. –When you share too much about yourself you run the risk of getting blamed in life for causes and circumstances outside of your immediate control. –You cannot change others only yourself. Don't expect people to change for you. You are responsible for yourself always. People will think what they want if misguided to feel better than. –That's irresponsibility toward others.

Secrets don't really help when everyone knows something you don't know. –Setting you up for failure in life, when you do your best and your best is not good enough. –You get compared to the ill – wealthy. Im not successful with money never paid. –Don't make me ill, treat me as sick. –Need to take a nap now rest.

02-10-18

When youre not feeling well there is nothing you can do to make your life better. That's when pain hits –its called disappointment occurring on a high note in life when you are doing well and you get sent backwards in life. –So you cannot function well. That is how people get hurt caring for and about others. Always be respectful of the time and spaces of others. –You never know who is fragile who is not. Always be kind to others.

I never self-sabotage usually when doing well you attract others and from that attention a judgment is made as to your sense of being –niceness to others, care future well being in hardship.

Chapter 36: Connections by Leslie A. Fischman

01-02-17

For every connection made that is a connection taken. I see that now. Upon interaction with my connections those are then sides taken opposing toward me on sides in opposition toward me by those sides operate toward to correct me based on the needs of one toward me not based upon my safety needs, this in turn gets more people to turn on me. There's nothing that can be done once one turns on you, and those close to you do, eventually everyone does in imitation of one another's popular viewpoint so that's one campaign against me. for example, that's they're experiment.

Everybody has their off days, we do not always make sense. It's not always necessary to discuss personal matters out loud. Doing onto others as you wish done to you means not reacting and differently had their reactions been negative or positive toward you, for what matters what or over what issues is not your responsibility to figure out but best take care of yourself first, the rest should what issues, is not your responsibility to figure out but best take care of yourself first, the rest should fall into place.

Eventually accept people for who they are on the inside not how born. That I can't control sorry.

Sometimes you're powerless you should always see positive.

When people are doing well don't take it personally when you're not doing well and they notice that, it's not to point that out be in your face about it to see how you respond.

Condescending tones are annoying and not helpful for progress social progress, building a better understanding. -This occurs, by being accepting of one another within reason by consistently setting boundaries for ourselves others will respect us more for doing so with or without explanation than be a doormat.

Always see the good in others.

While writing I was thinking ... Order of the squares matter they're like magic cards they help or hurt the next square move along feel better. How you should read to strengthen self, look for errors to strengthen, or find weaknesses and if so support weaknesses. When you support weaknesses that's called thinking positively. #SocialMedia

Always strive for success that comes from good minded individuals with purpose gone right in life solid ground sets for themselves is how a warrior is made in life unaffected by others

You can remove yourself from situations, from people, places, and be removed of things, but that should not change the integrity of your character should remain the same we are all human after all. At what point do you start living, and stop worrying. At what point do you start living and stop hating. At what point do you stop judging others and hurting others based on what you think of them, not true. When is the time for everyone to move forward? Nows a good time. #HappyNewYear

What We See We Remember by Leslie A. Fischman
01-06-17

What we see is what we remember is what gets promoted about us, not by whats in our closet, or in our bedrooms. That is not how people see us, by our private spaces. Is not how you judge a cover by its book, its by how you remember identify yourself, not by the baggage of others, or by your things in life. You cant go backwards and try to be a better you, you have to just be you as you are now. That's how to build a better you, from here forward, not by going backwards. Your past picture is always your best profile picture, as you remember you best. Ive found that that has helped me, gear myself back to reality, and how I understand my direction and self in life, and where I am headed, not by the direction of others, headed in life. Its important to stay true to your character, not be easily impressed upon or molded, slightly stubborn, but cautious, is the best way to lead yourself in any public environment. I have found that to rehabilitate my character it takes time, by good merits only. When I infuse myself with the troubles of others, bear burdens, that's my weight. Not the weight of others upon me, but my instincts, errors, failure, to overcome. Perfection is a job, not a hobby, when you perfect yourself, you understand your own intrinsic value, that no other person's value should affect you in communication. Its not contagious, stupidity , its just a recognized failure on my record, that cannot be removed, that was my biggest failure.

Chapter 46: Whats On My Mind by Leslie A. Fischman

Life Isn't About Image or Connections by Leslie A. Fischman

01-03-17

Life isn't about image or connections, its upon your own basis you become you, based upon your own merits in life, not the merits or good merits of others. How you self-identify and what becomes of you is how you will be judged by others. Always be yourself, you need not justify why you are the way you are or for what reasons you are ill is no ones business but your own. If you are doing everything you can to be well, than no people or persons should make you sick. People are not contagious, its bad ideas that are feared as being contagions, everyone is responsible for themselves, you cannot control others, it is not by our ideas that make us who we are but by our thoughts which control our actions and behaviors that make us who we are, how we are in public, how we address others, and how we ourselves are addressed, is a manifestation of how we see ourselves is how others will see us in reply, always be appropriate in public dressed and around others. That is how to be well-liked. When you are judged that is no excuse for self hatred or for upset, you can only do your best, and if your best is not well received than acceptance of self is required you cannot be accepted by all, that's called discrimination. You just have to accept that some people will not like you for whatever reasons, whether by your associations connections what you represent or what they think you represent or by where your headed in life, they think deserving or not. Intimidation and wins are for the weak, life's not a competition, take life easy, and always be there for others, when you help yourself, others will be helped too.

Moving Forward and Backtracking by Leslie A. Fischman

01-05-17

Whenever we move forward in life its common to backtrack and review ourselves, our strengths our weaknesses, and try to better our self and our image. Life is all about perfection. How we view ourselves, much to the same effect is how others will view us. If we do not go backwards and make our amends, and edit, then we as writers, subject ourselves to harsh and unnecessary scrutiny. Writing is all about perfection, no spelling errors, and no typographical mistakes. All of which affect the readers understanding of what is written. It is very important as a writer and publisher to always be unique, and to always be neat and tidy, that is how to make a good blog, one that is read, with ease. When there are errors, and blocks this causes the reader to question the source, and that is why people are blocked, and questioned, when they themselves are not tidy and neat looking they will be judged. It is by how we present ourselves, that we are looked at, manage your presence at all times well, in order to be well received, that is how to be best approachable.

Being Raised Conservative by Leslie A. Fischman

When you leave the woodwork you realize what you have, I was raised very conservative, and now I understand why. It was to protect me from harm, that when we let loose we will be judged by others, its how we are taken seriously, that others will judge us, based upon our own merits, and what we bring to the table, skills. Those skills are by education and background, those build the backbones to companies, and from there a company grows. What is independence. We chatted today before the meeting, to me that means a Corporation that is independently run, by its employees, who are independent of one another, not co-dependent. In the real world, I see that individuals, base selves on their accolades and based upon their merits, how confidence is made, not by being inside a group but by what they bring to the table, that is how confidence is made. You can only see yourself, when you are in a group of people, who is accepting of you not hard on you, know your worth. Sometimes in close relationships, people are hard on us, that's to protect us from harm. When we understand the value of self, in relationship to others, we will know ourselves best. How to behave in front of others value of self, in relationship to others, we will know ourselves best. How to behave in front of others, whether to be known for our present or our past, and from that point determine how well known, know you best, not others, how to get to know yourself among people, how to self identify. When people look at you and think you are something you are not, that is because they know you based on what they hear, not based on what they know, or see, and that is always understandable, we give thanks to others, for acceptance always, how to move forward, and not discuss our private lives out loud, or professional selves, in order to maintain a positive outlook in life, is by our work ethic not others points of views. This is clear upon meeting people very well adjusted, I too was once well adjusted, and now struggle because of my relationships gone sour, while attending law school. I will never understand the pressure perceived until I undergo it myself. What you say about yourself, is by what rumor is known about you, always be truthful, and give value to your life presently, everything is a matter of correction. When you are a perfectionist and corrected, then you should know better how to behave is how one is treated, who looks or appears mentally ill, that's called passing judgment upon another's circumstances, and adding fruit to the table of concerns. What is concerning is what alarms, people should never be alarmed by adjusters. Adjusters are people who are accepting of all people, they themselves must be conservative minded, if to be a backbone to others, to mirror conversation behavior. That is how trust is built, not by surprises, but by dialect, being conservative minded. Conservative minded means being a defensive driver in life, watching out always for concerns, addressing concerns accordingly, and by offering reassurances. Reassurances are guaranteed by behavior present, and behavior continued, elsewhere. It is known that I struggled with alcohol after law school, its never been a problem in my life professionally, always sound, and never a threat to my environment, or to others, I'm not a loose canon, its by judgments threats to me, that occurred (once), said something back under the influence (once), that is not me but a product of my circumstances, I was judged as something I am not, and because they thought I was a whore, I was treated like that, Im very chaste, never dressed like a whore, never behaved like one, always conservative toward others.

Whats Important to You by Leslie A. Fischman
01-07-17

Whats important to you matters, however it may not always matter to others. What you project about yourself personally, is how you fail, in the image department. That cannot be removed from your record, how others see you, that is something that you cannot control. In the grand scheme of things, how you will be viewed and judged will be a matter of principles based, not gusto or energy, but by your nature and value and givingness to the trade, that is your writing. Overall how you will be perceived is how you are judged by others, as worthy of attention, put together, a cohesive idea, or something that needs more work. That is called acceptance. What matters to you may not matter to everyone, but that doesn't mean that you or your ideas don't matter at all. With proper training and instruction you too can make a difference in the lives of others, its all a matter of manifestation, and willingness to learn and try, always doing your best. How you represent self matters, and based upon those judgments and first impressions, a judgment is passed upon you, accepted or declined, mattered or fabricated, together or not, or picked apart. You should never be insulted by the input of others, and that should not change you or your feelings about yourself, or cause you to question yourself or others. That is your instability, a reflection of your own instability, when you feel judged. To think positively of oneself, is how to undo negative opinions about oneself.

Chapter 44: Communications by Leslie A. Fischman

I share ideas for betterment. 🌸 How we communicate needs be normal positive conservative to be well-liked treated without talk.

I'm low key because I'm me. 🌸

The negative is acceptance past.

How I share is by quotes. 🌸

The undercut to esteem is failure.

When you go backwards to connect. Re-connect why move forward in life, make new connections, that's how to survive.

You keep all your friends and make new friends how to survive be a success in life well-liked. 🌸

Intimidation is a quality of character. How you see yourself.

Lives ruined are lives ruined. 🌸 Don't ruin yours at your expense.

Those who have a lot are a lot. 🌸

One bad connection doesn't make you who you are you are responsible for you always. 🌸

Be your own best influence in life do not be influenced by another's sins should not affect you next to.

Some people defend some listen.

Guilt is when you personalize to self emphatically the experiences of others, always stay in your shoes. That's not how to identify the positions of others not by glue. But by what we put together. Always stick to positive bases.

Guilt is an emotion of regret. If you live without regrets you stay positive how you attract others.

Causes for behavior are always on your own doings emotional bases.

When you leave a situation take from it and learn to better for you and others, always be a perfectionist. You reflect you. Others do not impress upon you your character is by your merits. When it's difficult you try harder.

You cannot be others take places in life you can only best be you. What id say to myself sitting there as me now, show up more positive smile more be more reassuring not be sensitive and have more confidence. How I was influenced. When you wish, you've lost yourself in life, how you know you've created errors for yourself in life that cannot be removed forgotten that's called self-harm. You can only best be you, help you best in order to see best for others.

Backwards review to see forwards blame is counterproductive for all.

Humor I can't do anymore because it looks insensitive that's an issue.

Represent yourself well not ideas. You should not pick apart glue.

Where ideas come from are by comparisons better thans.

What you relate to reflects you.

We can only relate to others by:

- Experience
- Empathy
- Sympathy
- Alikeness
- Differences
- Identities

When the happiness of others (1) bothers you or (2) you think is directed toward you or at your circumstances you know (3) you think too much of yourself: (a) too highly (b) not humble enough (c) not in their shoes.

Lift yourself up to lift others.

When you're well adjusted. Others will similarly be adjusted to you, seem well adjusted too. When you are not well adjusted everything stands out to you. It's what you see that matters in self and others why they say to always see the good in others.

Being a Positive Influence by Leslie A. Fischman
11/19/17

Being a positive influence requires knowledge of the appropriate settings for putting positives into motion. This requires tact. Not just responsibility to care for oneself and others, but for ability to respond under pressure, in the right, and correct wrongs as you go, that's how you become a base station and a point of reference for assistance while in a state of trauma, trauma occurs when you are not in the know and something happens, so long as we are all in the know, nothing can happen by surprise anymore to us, that is my sole mission, to help others stay in the know and positive, so that they can react in a way that supports positive functioning not dysfunction. I grew up with ADD/ADHD, if I sound immature to you I'm sorry but this is the way I write and this is the way I sound, and this is how I react, always with assurances and always with positivity, I was raised to always see the good in others, and with that viewpoint, I have been able to achieve in life, not live in fear. Living in fear occurs when you see negatively, and see the negatives, by over focusing on negatives, that is how one becomes concerned with others, it is never your responsibility to care for others, unless you are a professional and certified by state law, Colorado State Law, I am a Certified Crisis Hotline Counselor. And with that responsibility it is my job to make productive the times in trauma, that's how I help others. By not mentioning the negatives and not corresponding with negatives that is how we can best deter crime and stop crime, that is my theory that is my belief, in response to the times. The more ads you place above the more ads you get back. That is a given President Barack Obama put so many ads up in the Press Secretary's room I had to respond to that crisis and put an ad up on my blog, which ended up getting taken down for a period in time by a court order Texas, we are sorry you lost your homes, because of a lawsuit, I got sued and put in jail and in the psych ward because I hit my head because I relapsed on cocaine and Leo died of Cancer. That is why sometimes, whether or not you agree, you should just ignore or block people from the reality of your situation, so things don't become an unnecessary situation, where others live in fear, because one is not liked is no big deal, its just a consequence of someone being put in jail for no reason, a prisoner of war, until everything resolves itself, I came up with the solution: #bloggingcampaign. It is still in its developmental stages World Peace as we all adjust and respond by words or actions, this takes time says The Academy Awards, who are experts in World History, I am not a Historian I'm just a writer, and reader of what is assigned to me. I would never hurt anyone with my blogs or threaten anyone with my blogs because that is why I committed suicide because a Lawyer in the Valley threatened my Family to speak (2008) I read that blog on Google and committed suicide (2009) after joining the US Navy. Why a cruiseliner sunk, because of Petrocelli, it "hit a rock" and then Barack made the #MLKMemorial, I mean I'm not sure what he is trying to communicate, but I think we should all trust one another, and not cross lines, burn bridges, or place blame, if you have questions attack me that's what I'm here for like a Juke Box EMLK for everyone!

My Main Objective is to Continue to Help Others While Continuing My Legal Education at Thomas Jefferson School of Law. That is my Main Objective, in Whatever Capacity I am Able to, as a Blogger, Sober, Celibate, and Clean. Through Quotes Since 2013, a Blogger Online.

Welcome to mymollydoll.com where I have collected my best works and share what is important to me moving forward, while helping others to move forward from hardships and trauma, related to mental health issues. I have tried many different systems of support while coping with mental illness, however, none of which seemed to address the topics, which were causing me, and those around me hardship. To combat these issues, not punish those who have been harmed and may come across as mentally [deficient] or not the brightest, we should as a society do our best to strengthen the good characteristics that bind us, while selectively discouraging those characteristics we abhor or find troublesome by simple ignoring and/or not shedding light upon the negative, by instead focusing the positive insights that help us, to favor the assembly of new ideas for progress, that produce more positive outcomes overall, that is how I am able to help, in my current capacity, as a Law Student, by making peace not waves.

Expectations by Leslie A. Fischman

Notwithstanding current hardships, I write, this piece, keep moving forward. At a snails pace, and always with advance warning write, to anyone who is in opposition to me, that is how I have written since 2013. Be careful not to connect negatives to positives, this creates hardships and hardships interfere with expectation, and high expectations of oneself. Always be respectful of higher authorities, and always make sure to give credit where credit is due, Red Cross i.e Professionals. –Its never important to credit people for good deeds, or to seek credit for good deeds, that’s a misnomer, but to file oneself among, is appropriate.

What you are influenced by is what has been read, I influence myself for that matter, a writer. I just looked up my Curator Application to the US Supreme Court, and here we are today, with a new foundation #mmdfilmbase. Not the purposes for this website, not connected. Not for award. Not related, to my causes. That’s a negative connection sought to justify a connection made, and where ideas come from.

#PublicSafety

When safety needs are met. How can safety needs be met, by connections. When safety needs are met connections are made.

“Your pathways in life matter much the same as your pages online to your though[t] processes and by what you connect is based on what you read. I love the #newspaper why we have them.”

I don’t feel like writing anymore. Will discuss public safety in my next post.

Being Put Together by Leslie A. Fischman
12/18/17 (Originally Handwritten - Journal)

How people put things together –Some people put things together to hurt you, if you allow them to – and sometimes people put things together in a way that helps. –You cannot control the interpretations of others –whether for or against you. It does not make sense why anyone would read along and not support me. –But take benefit [from my hard work and effort, writing, and academic disciplined knowledge]. –That does not make sense to me –why anyone [would try to credit themselves force credit upon themselves by triggering me personally now, for what consequences forward does that serve] –would acquire information from a person they do not like. For what reason are people negative toward others? For what reasons do people bring up the past (not true) to serve and benefit themselves, their viewpoints. For what causes do they seek to trigger to benefit themselves? There is always cause for worry once aggravated. Occurs when one side is not doing well and to better themselves bring[s] down another side. This is called competition for happiness. When one cannot be happy for others or another’s happiness irritates them.

[Always see the big picture, do not blame causes and consequences on oneself, when one is not in the spotlight and another is, there is no one to blame but the spotlight and from where that spotlight occurs, and for what reasons, positive or negative, I would never enter the spotlight, when I am not doing well, I’m not retarded, I’m cautious, and I warn others, how to behave, not get into trouble and how to achieve peace within before trying to correct others, is wrong, aggravation is wrong in all forms, I’m not famous, everyone has their own lives, that’s assuming there’s an obsession with me, a non-existent public-obsession and trying to affect me to see if there’s existence of one, that’s called delusional behavior toward others, that’s called manipulation, to purposefully affect others, to generate a reaction to feel better about oneself, that is wrong, that is called being selfish about oneself].

That doesn’t make sense to me. Everyone deserves to live a normal life and do the best they can to achieve a normal life. There is never any excuse for anger or hostility toward others. [It] is never justified if not purposefully provoked. –Some problems exist within themselves. In it of themselves – in existence – meaning not existing because of others. –Problems, ideas, or thoughts. Are most likely generated from their own concerns. Assume from a good place to not contribute to[ward] those ills. –I was thinking about this today –There are conversations, then you leave a conversatio[n]. How to control yourself during unwanted conversations and what to do in the event of aggravation. –Usually it [is] best to walk away, leave the conversation and not engage others in conversation –avoid fights. – How you function afterwards –is in your control.

[Don’t attack others to feel a certain way in order to function in a way that brings you peace centers you makes better you, that is wrong, to be co-dependent on others, or to trigger others, to re-set your mood to better or better than].

No one can control you, your thoughts behaviors of how you function in life. It is never your responsibility to correct those who have harmed you. People who are exposed to abuse, used to those types of relationships will repeat those patterns toward you –hurt you again. Always be understanding. Especially when it comes to family and friends. Listen not tell people how you feel, but try to make new conversation, not relate what’s going wrong with individuals [who are] not concerned with personal issues [generally in states of crisis, -but concerned with themselves, their safety needs, that’s why I said always be understanding of others]. Platforms are not for attention but for communication with others. How people identify themselves is their own responsibility [including their own feelings and emotions, toward themselves, and toward others] –not the responsibility of everyone ever to help one person, a person should fix themselves to match their settings and blend in. Not stand out to be fixed. That’s trying –recipe for seeking unwanted attention so if talked about can place blame on others [or create circumstances to justify win arguments or point blank prove a side or occurrence or sequence of events, or likelihood of causal connections or correlations, after the facts trigger and then see if any dice pattern throw out differently to match ones viewpoints toward or against an individual or group of individuals innocent is wrong –it is never the victims fault, always remember that]. –[or] try to make someone like you or have similar issues to be addressed or fixed.

[Be careful not to take on characters past in someones life to prove past or see if present occurs to denominate any individual as problematic characteristically or see if problems occurred in another character past, to judge a character now, that's manipulation, use of self, to indicate characteristics in other by default, ie manipulation, planned occurrence or planned response to triggers given].

Best to get professional advice, not wear out others with negativity [sought or felt upon interaction with others, based upon their present circumstances, who they are now, or who they were past, that's stuff you usually keep to yourself in your own head, not trigger others negatively to generate responses, that's considered immature ordinarily behavior, but for the times, common under crisis]. Once you change it will seem like everything changes around you.

Sincerely,

Leslie A. Fischman

The use of subtleties will never change in the field of art and architecture and now the English language, that is called the artistic use of communication to share ideas and belief systems to support, demote, promote, construct, deconstruct, take away, simplify, negate, privilege, accentuate, amplify, denounce, knight, shame, guilt, downtrodden, deflame, inflame, react, cause to react, test, weaken, or support arguments in favor of or disfavor toward any one group or sides why they freed OJ, this was very problematic toward my future, 4 times jailed and 7 times psych warded for 14 days each, while he was in jail for 10 years after I committed suicide 2009 after applying to the #usnavy 2009 and DNC 2009, and my Father died with an hemangioma 2009, after my neighbor [asked who do you think did it after reading my paper] after reading a deposition [because he said the kids were looking for their mom] why I committed suicide, not what I had written, all I had written was a letter of apology to those who have died overseas and that I had acknowledged there was war overseas, and that my Father was quiet, and I committed suicide because I read on Johnny Cochran's website to be quiet if you know anything, which was that my Father said his Children were looking for their Mother, I was not looking for my Mom, I was asleep after my Dance Recital, did not go to Mezzaluna, was invited (regret not going now, have mentioned before in previous statements if there was something we could've have done to stop something bad from occurring what would we have done, attended, I'm very meticulous would have noticed if she left her sunglasses), and because I was tired, barely remembered the steps, slept soon after. –When on tour at Southwestern I went back after the Vanna White one day of class at Southwestern rose my hand and responded, to the Professor's question, spoke to Prof. Aronofsky (a different Professor I met during snacktime I later visited at his Office found him [on a separate visit, a second visit, later visit, to drop off my application probably or some papers] a third visit the other being an Interview > then got into #UWLA, with my name tag Visitor Tag on [during the 2nd Interview], asked him about Deposition Questions and Responses, when a Question is asked in a way and a Response generated what does that mean, what does the response mean, is it the question asked that's why responded to in that way, is why responded to in that way, is the purpose for why the question asked, that was 2008.

My Moon Gravity Speech by Leslie A. Fischman

From which all things project positives are made, whether in the negative back to turn over positive future or negative forward to turn positive better, these are the lessons that forgiveness teaches us. For the sake of all elementary thoughts combined to make one, think of the moon last, the mother of all good, born, recreated, blessed, and sound, by waves of improvement earth was made, blessed by someone who cares who helped shape us by water, is where life develops. A lesson we should never forget, how humanity was made, the combination of those who survive to build the strong. Who cares if the Dinosaurs are gone. I make Disney Books online like buttons control the music industry, a book gifted to my sister Frank Gehry, a drawing you took to build Disney Center and turn her against me, over what a soccer foot, to keep apart, we shared a room my whole life, and love for redecorating our space, moving around Ikea furniture until we got a custom built in for our room and covered one wall with magazine photos in high school, beauty, to beauty we prayed and slept under, faces of women, like the moon, something beautiful to come. And separated my Mother from Christopher DiFranco a real Movie Pitcher, who because of time spent with, committed suicide February 2009, my Mom not picking up her phone busy, detached, did not understand the gravity of circumstances under.

What is not understood is okay, is not being projected as evidence of misconduct on behalf of anyone involved, as stated as to any other subject mentioned within stated prior, within this given text, it's simply in addition a feeling triggered, rationale, for detachment, something that really hurt my feelings, really broke me, to be treated as replaceable, unimportant, not special, whatever, invisible. Today we pray for the sins we have forgotten, the mistakes we have made in judgment that led us astray, the mistakes we may make along the way as we create new ground and concepts for peace, I think it is our best efforts always that shine, even in times when insecure, lose confidence, can be achieved by the most simple forms of record keeping.

We are very fair with everyone do our best:

- Smart

- Blinde
- Retarded

I provide inside to more than one way to see things always. Told to argue both sides on exams. If you don't like my best and try to prove grose retarded then see (4) noah's arc joke for proof I'm whatever you need to hear to say (youre this youre that, im normal youre weird, youre grose im not, youre cold youre angry your dangerous youre homicidal I'm good). The whole truth and nothing but the truth #SCOTUS. I keep a lot to myself. I don't really talk about painful stuff out loud. But you guys should really take into consideration my position has not been easy as a law student. I got thrown in the psych ward 7 times. Why? I committed suicide in 2009 that's how I ended up in the psych ward in 2009. Why did they keep recreating those conditions, afterward?

You guys think now is crazy. Imagine what the 90s were like for me. So I mean come on. I had to do school with helicopters and news vans and phone calls from Star Magazine to my Fax Line. cc: #PresidentTrump #BarackObama #SCOTUS #usarmy I think everyone needs to focus, appreciate all. Be disciplined, conservative, hardworking, and do their best always. Help out at home, do their chores, keep up with errands, task oriented, make lists, see the Doctor, read everyday, keep a journal or go to therapy, get sober or go to AA, or drink on occasion and work hard in between. We live in the safest Country in the World. Don't be spoiled! Be grateful! Rule #1: To be successful NEVER complain, if so, by report to LAPD or FBIDC only. Trust eachother don't go by news stories – “all crimes are senseless” why I stopped watching TV just write. I mean no one though to assemble everything blinde build one launch pad? Thank you #NASA run everyday. #PopeFrancis replies, create good. Trying. If you create more good than bad, you will be remembered in the positive. Okay. If you focus on the negative undo their wrongs, then you weaken yourself. Don't throw garbage back shout retarded retorts to make others not feel bad detach feel better than. That's not your job, stop cycles. Directions: To stop cycle of violence > leave and build a new (To stop repetition of bad > build one launch pad from a good base to get everyone to good

#RespectAll Respect your superiors in life: The educated, the professional, and the knowledgeable, if you cant see out youre in over youre head in to[o] knee deep to go back to school or need more job training. It's really disheartening to get beat up and have to speak explain how the World works to everyone, so they feel included not threatened, safe not paranoid, at peace not hostile, vindicated for their wrongs by causing harm to others is unnecessary and improper at all times, exonerate yourselves by doing good in the World not by causing harm to others, when you hurt others you only hurt yourselves. Take responsibility for your actions, bow down or step up in life, otherwise do not interfere with the positive progress made by other to whom others depend on for support and a sense of normalcy. Always be a rock is what my Mom has told me over the years. cc: The US Supreme Court Issue: If you don't know me, don't hurt me.

Don't misrepresent retarded people as bad. Retarded doesn't make bad, bad makes retarded, retarded doesn't make bad, bad makes retarded, retarded is codependency easily affected by others, they either think youre funny, or cant see you not on their radar, they don't pay close attention to other because their focused on themselves.

Don't misinform yourselves by reading between too many lines, by making negative inferences, and poor assumptions about others. You only make yourselves sick when you think negatively of others, and it makes others sick when you talk $hit about others. Tip of the day SCOTUS I write so much, I'm always clear, I never F with anyone's head, always honest, truthful to a T.

On the bright side the good news is that retarded people are actually important to society, they see wrong be wrong to see right because they don't see bad don't understand whys have trouble figuring out how when they see themselves and see a goal everything feels so far away they concentrate so hard slow just to get there don't understand others well because they are trying to[o] hard to feel smart protect smart and laugh at stuff all the time, so when the Librarian with disability is being hostile toward me when everyone is either calm cheery or cordial I know somethings up if he makes fun of me. I know people are retarded and Im not scared of retarded people (are harmless codependent) because I went to Broadway Gym with [students with Down Syndrome], our class after theirs, saw them in the locker room, on the Van rides to the Gym the driver playing "you give me fever" singing along. The Resentments We Harbor by Leslie A. Fischman
10/21/17

The resentments we harbor are usually due to some expectation that something need be said to keep something from occurring we think necessary to keep something past from happening or something responsible connected past that is reason for something occurring usually a delusional connection like an Ohio Street Meeting and an Ohio Shooting or a Marymount Speaker and a Marymount Santa Barbara Death. These are just guilty feeling they bear and connections they assembled and their speakers I was just a member of their audience a Law Student. Middle fingers up holds her pose Justice Ginsberg in reply to my Ex-Sponsor on her page middle fingers up on a Chair lift bitter middle fingers back to her audience up a chair lift October 2017 after Las Vegas. We are in mourning, why so negative? Defensive? When no one is accusing anyone of misconduct. I'm not being defensive.

When the time comes, #smart is shared, when it's not necessary fun is shared, when it's needed #creativity is shared, when it's required thoughts and ideas are shared, when it's possible deals are made, when it's creatable written works are written and submitted to #SCOTUS by #lesliefischman, I'm not an Investigator or Prosecutor, I'm not a Perpetrator or Offender or Fraud, I'm in the Helping Professions, I do not Support the Mafia or Black Market or Criminals or #Sex Trade or Hard Core Porn Industries. In fact have notably chastised those who have contributed to the raping of #Women in Society and Cold Behavior toward the Hearts of Women, resulting in our Mental Illnesses.

What is not understood is okay, is not being projected as evidence of misconduct on behalf of anyone involved, as stated as to any other subject mentioned within stated prior, within this given text, it's simply in addition a feeling triggered, rationale, for detachment, something that really hurt my feelings, really broke me, to be treated as replaceable, unimportant, not special, whatever, invisible. (Song: Invisible by #SkylarGrey). No one gets promoted or demoted by me, I'm not powerful it's all by your own hardwork and ethic you achieve in life not by the opinions held by others in society do[es] [not] matter as much these days but by the solid backings of your professional record and work experience. I always see the good in others, see well. I always deal an upper hand first if chastised like playing #Poker with my Dad in #Mammoth getting 3 Aces, Wow! Cool. Then with patience explain later when I have the time, that's in Gods hands, #RobDebakey once told me "God heals all wounds."

What You Know Is Important by Leslie A. Fischman
01-17-18

What you know is important, to disclosures. That is what is sought, is information unknown to others, but known to you, that is how one is interrogated, by information known now known. Usually people with information are known to others, and people who suspect information is known, interrogate those people. What information is known, is what is presently thought in possession, but not had, and upon such bases, a decision is made as to the outlook and conduct of an individual who has not relapsed and is sober, for which others are now defensive to. Do not suspect or interrogate those who are innocent, it is by your own misconducts, that innocence is lost, not by one you deem relevant judged as an offender for decisions past or present. Be careful not to intimidate people with your knowledge or think present circumstances non-existing that's called delusion. Delusion is not a punishable offense in this Country, but theft is. Do not steal from others, do not steal the identities of others, and do not erase anything. That is considered the highest offense. What is not yours cannot be taken by anyone, I am not a dependent, I am an ABA Certified Paralegal, I never play victim. How one communicates is important, what you connect is what you deem relevant. I am not connected to anyone, and I have no associations, I'm very professional. I am like minded in the realm of public safety, and mental health concerns. Be careful of overzealous prosecution of innocent people, that leads to unrealized hardships, and does not cause one to commit crimes, but report crimes upon them. Distrust following statements of "noted for her honesty" does not make sense. Be very careful with your words towards others, not be offensive toward anyone, who you deem as not good enough or replaceable. Do not judge people for their character, or for their decisions or choices made, they are not your own. Always be yourself.

Misunderstanding causes illness. Don't hurt me. My Dad invented the "Normal Button" and I invented the "See Clear" button. Now #PopeFrancis will grade me. He believes in me and my Families.

Sharing Incomplete Ideas by Leslie A. Fischman
12-29-17

Always give time to processed thoughts, and never share an incomplete idea. Incomplete ideas cause others to question you, wanting to know more, a more general sound basis and rationale is decided upon you as needed. Do not share anything that is incomplete or not put together, as you will be questioned as to the basis for your decision-making and/or rationale basis for judgment upon the thoughts that you have.

On Twitter we discussed:

Why everyone is hyped on #SocialMedia, I said was to distract you. Then further explained "these are just distractions to help [you] not take the place of reality. Mind you [to] make better self then return to reality ... [reminding everyone] to be careful on #SocialMedia highs are temporary to resolve depression." (@mmdfilmbase, 12/29/17). -I then went on to discuss things we need to work on: (1) more work to be done (2) not finished yet (3) always leave open spaces (4) open interpretation and applied (5) where we zoom in, and then shared my Laker Game Notes. (@mmdfilmbase, 12/29/17).

More Work To Be Done (definition): When something is incomplete and there is more work to be done, means there is a void, that needs to be filled, something missing, or something lacking, to make something feel whole complete.

Not Finished Yet (definition): When something is incomplete or finished, it will be picked up, and pryed into, spaces, to see what more work needs to be done, to fix a situation, or a person, or an idea, made better, taken.

Always Leave Open Spaces (definition): This is called leaving some breathing room, air to breathe, meaning people need space to think and to put together their own thoughts, not to mistake people, as not knowing, assume, people know more, then you will feel less control or necessity to speak assemble.

Open Interpretation and Applied (definition): When you leave things open for interpretation, like impressionist painters, you give your audience the control and direction for their own thoughts, not directed by you.

Where We Zoom In (definition): Where and what we focus on affects our judgments and what we see, then spins off from there, you are always in control of your thought processes, not controlled by the thoughts of others.

Laker Game Notes 12/23/17:

Errors-Loss-Selfishness (definition): Whenever you are in error or when others are in error, you feel a sense of blame, or react to others in defense or blame, when this occurs, you are being selfish, centered on self, for causes, not focused outside of yourself, for justifications as to whys, you are smaller than the sum of its parts.

Behavior-Comfort (definition): What we perceive and what we know are two different things, how you will be interpreted is how you will be judged by others, by what you say and what you know, will be the interpretation taken from your information, as to what you know, by what you say, is how you will be interpreted.

Reaction – Cause and Effect (definition): How you react to circumstances, will justify to others causes and effects, and sources for blame, how you are put into the mix, is how you will be defined, by your words and your actions and reactions to stimulus's and or people, is how you will be judged, whether in response to or on your own.

Everyone = Win (definition): When you take the side of the majority that equals a win, when you take the side of the minority that equals a loss, when you take your own side, what does that equal, hopefully a better understanding of you, your side.

I then went on to state the following (without further explanation, herein):

“So that's what[s] thought, when people don't like you to begin with error, win = everything [is] no big deal. Big deal makes worse. Im not important poor = plan. [This is being related to a news story, I'm not homeless I am a dependent, disabled, be careful who you compare me to, Im not an offender, I'm a victim 2003, this is what is sought to be argued, a connection or relationship I am not criminal, be careful, do not hurt me, to create a team, I don't believe in fighting, Im myself, when you amplify a subject, people who do not like me, take defense, then hurt me]. [These are examples of negative thought patterns about self, in response to others]. Losers make winners. Comparisons cause illness. Professionals v. Amateurs. In life, about concentration. Focus in not unique. Everyone has focus. Delusion v. Prediction = Not happening. What happens now. Anger toward you does not make your lost esteem important – feelings are not important people are. Your feelings reactions are never anyone's fault but your own. You are not a product of what you speak, you are a product of the reactions of others. Why am I alive? UCLA (2009)? Live, quiet.

Maybe working in a field unrelated to anything –outside every scope. Focus on oneself is best. Not relating anything to anything to preserve. I think because I didn't get married yet it ruined my image why Im not trusted and why I'm more prone to hurt[ing] myself date the wrong choices in life. I don't think that's weird – normal, but should always be in control and only date to marry –take life seriously [with a] good attitude a negative attitude is a turn off.

(Defenses to Victim-Blaming and Shaming):

- I got taken off my Adderrall.
- Interpreted.
- Looked like I need to be interpreted.
- Difficulty communicating.
- So I appear mentally ill.
- To match my medical records.
- To explain [why] suicidal 2009 UCLA [where I was hospitalized].

Things are about what you make them [to be] about what you do not discuss will not come up in conversation.
